

Registration Ref.	#124 (29/7/2008)
Cultivar Name	P. 'Connor Cailean'
Originator	Robert McPhail (United Kingdom)
Parentage	P. loefgrenii 'Corupa' (♀) × P. caerulea (♂)
Description	Stem round, dark red on maturity; flowers 9-10cm in diameter, reflexing, upright; petals and sepals violet/blue; corona filaments deep purple at base, white banded to blue at apex; leaves 3-5 lobed, dark green with reddish pigmentation, 10cm long x 12 cm wide; petiole 8cm with 3 petiole glands; peduncle 13cm; bracts 1.5cm x 1cm. Appears to be self-fertile forming fruits. Minimum temperature 0C. Produced in 2005 and named after Connor McPhail, the godson of the breeder.