

Registration Ref.	#125 (3/8/2008)
Cultivar Name	P. 'La Lucchese'
Originator	Maurizio Vecchia (Italy)
Parentage	P. 'Fata Confetto' (♀) × P. kermesina (♂)
Description	Stem round; flowers 10cm in diameter, non-fragrant; petals and sepals purple; corona filaments violet/lavender bands at base to white and crinkled at apex; leaves 3-lobed, margins denticulate, 11cm long x 13cm wide; petiole 6cm with 2 central petiole glands; peduncle 8cm; bracts 1cm long, setaceous and deciduous. Flowering period June to October. Minimum temperature ~ 2C. Named after the city of Lucca and Murabilia 2008. The female parent is the hybrid {(P. incarnata × P. tucumanensis) × P. incarnata ?}.