

Registration Ref.	#149 (11/8/2009)
Cultivar Name	P. 'Holly'
Originator	Franz Düllli (Switzerland) and Axel Frank (Germany)
Parentage	P. incarnata 'Lorayne' (♀) × P. kermesina (♂)
Description	Stem round, red; floriferous; flowers up to 10 cm in diameter, light fragrance; sepals 4.6 x 1.5cm, slightly keeled, with 0.2cm awn, adaxial surface dark magenta, abaxial surface reddish-brown; petals 4.6 x 1.2cm, both surfaces dark magenta; corona filaments 7.5cm in diameter, several inner shorter rows purple, two outer short rows violet, two long outer rows banded white/violet; bracts 0.5-0.8cm x 0.4-0.7cm, reddish-green with 0.2cm awn, irregularly distributed on the peduncle, 0.7-4.5 cm from the base of the bud; floral tube 0.6-1.2cm; leaves three-lobed, serrated, 7-10 x 9.5-14.5cm; petiole reddish 2.2-2.5cm with one pair of glands about 0.6 cm from leaf base; stipules filamentous, serrated, 0.6 x 0.1cm. First flowered in 2007. Minimum temperature 7C. Named after Holly Golightly, the main character in the film 'Breakfast at Tiffany's'. Similar parentage to P. 'Tiffani'.